

Golf in a volcano Lanzarote

Golf tourism in Lanzarote

A Land of volcanoes with a singular and unique beauty that is practically abstract, Lanzarote is an island of contrasts that enjoys an eternal summer that invites you to enjoy its beautiful beaches bordering the Atlantic Ocean.

With a privileged climate that leaves no room for winter, and two golf courses to enjoy, Lanzarote lives immersed in an eternal spring that makes it the ideal destination for sun and beach tourism at any time of the year. The island has 200 kilometres of coastline with such surprising areas as the beautiful Famara beach, the inaccessible Risco beach, or the little piece of paradise of the impressive Papagayo beach.

Where to Play golf in Lanzarote

Costa Teguisse Golf & Lanzarote Golf

Costa Teguisse Golf is a more technical course, famous for its row of palm trees, a course which challenges you the more you play it. It is located in Costa Teguisse, one of the most beautiful tourist and residential areas of the archipelago.

Lanzarote Golf, is located towards the south of the island, in the town of Tías, a few minutes from Puerto del Carmen, the other tourist area. It is a very accessible course from all the hotels in this area. It is a wider course, and perhaps easier for higher handicaps, although on both courses any handicap can be enjoyed.
